

TRAINING:*Overview of the Serious Emotional Disturbance (SED) Identification Process

This training is for any staff working in the behavioral health system that will be responsible for conducting the Serious Emotional Disturbance (SED) identification process. This training offers a general overview of the SED identification process, including steps in the process and key factors to consider when determining eligibility for services. Participants will gain basic knowledge to support accurate and consist of identification of SED in children and adolescents.

Link for providers who have access to Relias --

https://AZAHP.training.reliaslearning.com/Learning/Catalog.aspx?CourseCode=SED\_Overview