

UnitedHealthcare Medicare Advantage Reimbursement Policy Update Bulletin: October 2024

New
Policy Title	Effective Date	Policy Summary
Hospital Inclusive Charges Policy, Facility	12/01/2024 - Reminder	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> UnitedHealthcare will publish a new Hospital Inclusive Charges Policy, Facility that is in accordance with the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services' Provider Reimbursement Manual. This policy aims to provide guidelines on which items or services are not eligible for separate reimbursement during both inpatient and outpatient hospital visits. Certain categories of items and services are included within the overall room and board or facility fee charge for an inpatient or outpatient visit, or otherwise bundled within services provided as part of the visit, and therefore are not considered separately reimbursable by UnitedHealthcare.
Anatomical Modifier Requirement Policy, Professional Reminder	11/01/2024 - Reminder	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Effective with dates of service on or after November 1, 2024, UnitedHealthcare will implement the Anatomical Modifier Requirement Policy, Professional. This policy requires the use of appropriate laterality or anatomical modifiers for surgical procedures that are assigned a bilateral status indicator of 1 on the CMS National Physician Fee Schedule for the claim to be considered for reimbursement. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The relevant modifiers include: 50, LC, LD, LM, RC, RI, E1-E4, FA, F1-F9, LT, RT, TA, T1-T9 Modifiers are essential in medical coding to provide clarity. Anatomical and lateral modifiers specify the part of the body on which a service was performed, which is important when the procedure could potentially be performed on multiple sites. The use of modifiers assists with ensuring appropriate reimbursement for services rendered.

Code Updates

Reimbursement Policy Code Updates – Multiple Policies	10/01/2024	In response to provider feedback and in an effort to provide more transparency, UnitedHealthcare is providing additional information regarding code updates that impact reimbursement policies. These updates are not changing the intent or the coding requirements of the policy, but reflect changes made to industry standard code sets. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Information regarding these code updates can be found in the history section which is located at the end of the posted policy. Code sections/lists/tables within a policy may not be comprehensive but may be provided as examples. Please review the full policy to understand applicability. Code updates could include, for example, CPT, HCPCS, ICD-10, Modifiers, Revenue Codes, or other industry standard code sets. UnitedHealthcare routinely updates its reimbursement policies in response to code updates made by, for example, Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS), the American Medical Association (AMA), and the World Health Organization (WHO). This information is provided as a courtesy and may not include all code updates. Check published policy to determine impact at the state level. The following UnitedHealthcare policies have recently been updated to include code changes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Emergency Department (ED) Facility Evaluation and Management (EM), Facility Supply Policy, Professional Assistant-at-Surgery Services, Professional National Drug Code (NDC) Requirement Policy, Professional and Facility Services by Residents, Interns and Medical Students Policy, Professional

Published reimbursement policies are intended to ensure reimbursement based on the code or codes that correctly describe the health care services provided. UnitedHealthcare reimbursement policies may use Current Procedural Terminology (CPT®*), Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) or other coding guidelines. References to CPT or other sources are for definitional purposes only and do not imply any right to reimbursement

Note: The absence of a policy does not automatically indicate or imply coverage. As always, coverage for a health service must be determined in accordance with the member’s benefit plan and any applicable federal or state regulatory requirements.
